The rankings, compiled by Oliver Gottschalg, Professor and Antin IP Chair on Private Equity and Infrastructure at the HEC Paris Business School, evaluated the performance of 101 firms who raised over $1.6 trillion between 2010-2019 to answer the central question of which firms generated the best performance for their investors over time. The list was ultimately compiled using a proprietary methodology that aggregated all available data into one overall performance score.

"We are proud to be recognized by HEC Paris and Dow Jones as one of the best performing large buyout firms," said Rich Caputo, Chairman and Chief Executive Partner of TJC. "This recognition is a culmination of the hard work of our people and reaffirms the conviction we have in the vision that has driven us for over 40 years."
