HEC Paris Business School Professor and Antin IP Chair on Private Equity Infrastructure Oliver Gottschalg compiled the rankings with a proprietary methodology by evaluating performance data from 649 investment firms between 2011 and 2020 that raised $2.29 trillion to address the question of which firms have performed best for investors.

"On behalf of the Firm, our portfolio companies and our investment partners, I want to express gratitude and appreciation to HEC Paris and Dow Jones for again highlighting TJC as a leader in the private equity industry," said Rich Caputo, Chairman and Chief Executive Partner of TJC. "Our team has pursued excellence at the highest level across our sectors of expertise for decades, stretching over dozens of investments, and we are immensely appreciative for the continued recognition of our commitment."

The 2024 HEC-Dow Jones Private Equity Performance Ranking, published on February 6, 2025, ranks private equity funds in terms of aggregate performance based on buyout funds raised between 2010 and 2020.

The HEC – Dow Jones Large Buyout Performance Ranking is based on a comprehensive dataset of PE fund performance from Preqin, as well as direct contributions from PE firms. It uses a unique methodology to assess the aggregate performance of each firm, considering various performance measures for all the funds managed by this firm. This approach aggregates performance across vintage years considering both relative and absolute returns.

In total, HEC Paris Professor Oliver Gottschalg analyzed performance data from 649 PE firms and the 2662 funds they raised between 2011 and 2020 with an aggregate equity volume of $2.29tr.
